BAN KI-MOON SCHOLARSHIP AT MCI

The 8th UN Secretary General Scholarship on SDGs

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Along with the required documents like CV, evidence of language proficiency and proof of Non-European nationality, applicants must include:

- A statement (approximately 500 words) that recounts the applicant's current (or past) commitment to one or several SDGs including reference to concrete evidence / documentation.
- A motivation letter describing the applicant's future goals in support of the SDG(s) and explaining how their chosen MCI degree will help them achieve these aims. The motivation letter should also explain how applicants would benefit from the awarded scholarship (financial aspects).

SELECTION CRITERIA REGARDING THE SDGS

Applications will be selected based on the following criteria:

Current (or past) commitment to the SDGs

- Degree and nature of engagement / commitment
- Evidence provided
- Impact achieved

Future commitment to the SDGs

- Feasibility of the defined goals
- Match and congruence of applicant's SDG focus and chosen MCI degree
- Potential impact of applicants' goals

SELECTION PROCESS

Applications will be evaluated in a two-stage process based on the selection criteria mentioned above. In a pre-selection round, applications will be short-listed. Subsequently, short-listed applicants will be invited to an interview with the jury consisting of jurors from the Ban Ki-Moon Centre and MCI.

The final decision is made based on the following weighting:

- 50% submitted documents
- 50% interview with the jury

not applicable for Executive masters' applicants
